word has been received
of the death Feb. [illegible]
Mrs. Mabel Runnells Jenks
, of New York City. She was of a pioneer Polk County family, at the home of a sister
in Philadelphia. Death followed a long illness.

Born in England, where her father, John Sumner Runnells, was an American diplomat, Mrs. Jenks spent her early girlhood in Des Moines. Her father was associated with the late Frederick M. Hubbell in development of public utilities and railroads.

The family moved to Chicago in the 1880's, where Mr. Runnells was president of the Pullman Co. The towns of Runnells and Clive are named for members of the family.

Mrs. Jenks was the widow of Robert Irving Jenks, New York financier.

Her sister, Mrs. Albert Atlee Jackson of Philadelphia, is the only survivor. Burial will be in Whitemarsh, Penn.
